

Clifford Scott-Rudnick

---

Professional experience

The John Marshall Law School Chicago, IL

Visiting Professor 2007 - 2009

Assistant Professor & Director of Continuing Legal Education
2009 - Current

Teaching Professional Responsibility, Trusts & Estates, Law Practice Management and Legal Writing courses. Advising students for Morrissey Scholars articles. Assisting with practices for various trial competition teams.

1998 - 2007 Suburban Bank & Trust Elmhurst, IL

Vice President & Trust Officer

Developing and closing new trust and banking relationships in the greater Chicagoland area including purchases of trust portfolios. Targeted markets are attorneys, accountants and their clients. Explain and encourage use of personal, land and insurance trusts, escrows, 1031 exchanges, investment services and retirement planning. Plan and coordinate seminar presentations on legal and trust topics for attorneys and clients.

1988 - 1998 Old Kent Bank Elmhurst, IL

Assistant Vice President

Concentrated in trust new business development in Chicago Loop and Western suburbs. Targeted markets were attorneys and their clients for personal trust, escrows, 1031 exchanges, and labor unions for their 401(k), escrow and custodial trust services. Administered all escrows, exchanges, as well as some personal and corporate trusts comprising approximately 1/3 of my time. Coordinated all land trust functions including staff supervisory duties for a portfolio of 2500 accounts from 1988 until 1994 when Old Kent exited that line of business. Successfully helped to negotiate that sale of that portfolio to its conclusion.

1987 - 1988 LaSalle National Bank Chicago, IL

Trust Officer

Administered land trusts as one of six officers in a thirty-person department servicing over 20,000 land trust accounts. Helped write the land trust policy and procedures manual. Duties included meeting customers and their attorneys and reviewing and processing land trust documents.

Professional memberships

American, Illinois, Du Page, Decalogue & Chicago Bar
Associations; Phi Alpha Delta Law Fraternity

Community activities

Temple Shalom Board of Directors
NorthSide Community Federal Credit Union Vice-President