

THE INTEGRATION DEBATE-- COMPETING FUTURES FOR AMERICAN CITIES

September 5 & 6, 2008

Payment must accompany order.

Cost includes shipping and handling: DVD - $18 @ or 4 disk set - $60

Please make check payable to: The John Marshall Law School and send to 315 S. Plymouth Court, Chicago, IL 60604

		DVD	COST
Friday Disk 1	THE CHANGING DEMOGRAPHY OF METROPOLITAN AMERICA Maurice McGough, U. S. Dept. of Housing & Urban Development, Moderator Integration Exhaustion, Race Fatigue, and the American Dream Chester Hartman, Poverty & Race Research Action Council Gregory Squires, George Washington University From Segregation to Integration: How Do We Get There? Nancy A. Denton, University of Albany, SUNY Shifting Legal Mandates Philip D. Tegeler, Poverty & Race Research, Moderator Making the Legal Case for Pro-Integrative Strategies John Relman, Relman & Dane Constitutional and Statutory Mandates for Residential Racial Integration Florence Wagman Roisman, Indiana University School of Law Can Integration Be Achieved Through Litigation? Michael P. Seng and F. Willis Caruso, The John Marshall Law School		$18.00
Disk 2 Fri. & Sat.	KEYNOTE ADDRESS: Market Barriers to Integration: Discrimination in Housing, (Friday) Mortgage Lending, and Homeowners Insurance Shanna Smith and Cathy Cloud, National Fair Housing Alliance KEYNOTE ADDRESS: The Murderous Legacy (Saturday) Roger Wilkins, George Mason University		$18.00
Friday Disk 3	ECONOMIC CONSEQUENCES OF SEGREGATION Aurie Pennick, Field Foundation of Illinois, Moderator Desegregated Schools and Segregated Education Alicia Jolla, City of Charlotte, NC The Effects of Housing Market Discrimination on Earnings Inequality Kris Marsh, University of Maryland Alicia Jolla, City of Charlotte, NC Integration, Segregation and the Racial Wealth Gap Melvin L. Oliver, University of California Integration and Health Dolores Acevedo-Garcia, Harvard School of Public Health RACE, POLITICS, AND JUSTICE J. Damian Ortiz, The John Marshall Law School, Moderator Both Segregated and Integrated: Black Voters and Elected Officials in the Early 21st Century David Bositis, Joint Center for Political and Economic Studies Two Tiered Justice: Race, Class, and Crime Policy Randolph N. Stone, University of Chicago Law School		$18.00
Saturday Disk 4	HOUSING POLICY: OPPORTUNITIES AND CHALLENGES Allison Bethel, The John Marshall Law School, Moderator Housing Mobility is a Civil Right Elizabeth K. Julian and Demetria McCain, Inclusive Communities Project Policy Choices in Designing Residential Mobility Programs: Comparing Social Mechanisms in Different Kinds of Programs James Rosenbaum, Northwestern University The Ghetto Game: Apartheid and the Developer's Imperative in Post-Industrial American Cities Mindy Thompson Fullove, Columbia University The Myth of Concentrated Poverty Stephen Steinberg, Queens College, University of New York Integration: Solving the Wrong Problem Janet L. Smith, University of Illinois at Chicago		$18.00

Please allow 4 - 6 weeks for delivery. Purchase 4-disks set for $60, save $12.

Total Amount Due

Ship To:

(No Post Office Box)

NAME:

ADDRESS:

CITY

State

Zip

PHONE: