Campus Agreement Student Users Acceptance Form

Information Technology Services

This acceptance form is valid for the Microsoft products listed below, which shall be referred to collectively herein as the "Software". Software is made available to you because The John Marshall Law School has purchased temporary licenses for the Software through Microsoft Campus Subscription Enrollment effective 10/1/2008 through 9/30/2011. The John Marshall Law School is extending to you the right to use the Software on a personally-owned computer or an institution-owned computer designated for /your exclusive use. You do not own the license or the CDs, rather you are authorized to use the Software and associated media pursuant to the terms and conditions of the license(s) granted to The John Marshall Law School for the term of The John Marshall Law School's Campus Subscription Enrollment. You will be required to remove the Software from your personal machine immediately upon the earlier of (a) any event, with the exception of graduation, which causes you no longer to be a student of the institution or (b) expiration of the Campus Subscription Enrollment licensed period.

If you graduate during the Campus Agreement Subscription term, the Software license will convert to a perpetual license (meaning you own the Software) as verified in your Student License Confirmation, which may be obtained from The John Marshall Law School at that time. The Student License Confirmation is proof of Software ownership.

You are granted the right to use the following Software per the terms of the Campus Agreement Student Option:

Microsoft Office 2007, Windows or Mac version

Please initial each statement:

- I will read and abide by the license(s) associated with this Software.
- I understand that no technical support is provided by The John Marshall Law School.
- I understand the minimum specifications to run the Software as listed.
- I understand that I will be required to remove the Software from my personal machine immediately upon the earlier of (a) any event, with the exception of graduation, which causes me to no longer to be a student of the institution or (b) expiration of the Campus Subscription Enrollment licensed period.
- I understand that if The John Marshall Law School does not renew the Student Option under the Campus Subscription Enrollment, then I must delete or remove the Software licensed to The John Marshall Law School under the Campus Agreement from my computer at the time the enrollment expires or is terminated.
- I understand that if I graduate from The John Marshall Law School during the Campus Subscription Enrollment licensed period, the Software license will convert to a perpetual license (meaning I have full ownership of the Software).
- I understand that it is my responsibility to contact the institution to obtain the Student License Confirmation, which is proof of Software ownership, prior to graduation from the institution.
