

FERPA RIGHTS

Pursuant to the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974, 20 U.S.C. 1232g, The John Marshall Law School may disclose the following directory information about a student to any person without prior notice to or consent from the student: his or her name, address, telephone listing, date and place of birth, major field of study, participation in officially recognized activities, dates of attendance, degrees and awards received, and the most recent, previous educational agency or institution attended by the student.

Any student that DOES NOT want directory information about himself or herself released without his or her prior consent shall indicate so by signing the form below and returning it to the Records Office, room 301.

Please understand, by signing this form The John Marshall Law School will not be able to verify to employers dates of attendance or degrees awarded.

Signature of Student

Date

Print name & Social Security Number

or

If you WILL allow The John Marshall Law School administration to release degree information, BUT would not like your name published in the Student Directory, please sign below and return this form to the Records Office, room 301.

Signature of Student

Date

Print name & Social Security Number

.....